

Anthropological Ideas Learning Outcomes

Knowledge and understanding

- K1 Gain a good understanding of how, why and when anthropology started
- K2 Gain a recognition of the main names of the founders of Anthropology and a solid understanding of key anthropological perspectives
- K3 Gain familiarity with ethnographies
- K4 Gain critical ability to outline the main methods of anthropological research
- K5 Consolidate knowledge on the contribution of anthropology to the social sciences
- K6 Produce critical assessment of the role of anthropology in the contemporary world

Cognitive and intellectual skills

- C1 Gain a good grasp of the key concepts in socio-cultural anthropology
- C2 Gain a good understanding of the historical development of the discipline
- C3 Achieve a good grasp of the concepts of ethnocentricity, culture, and context
- C4 Establish critical reflection upon the practice of anthropological research
- C5 Work with the ethical issues surrounding doing research in different cultures including one's own

Professional and subject specific

- P1 Understanding issues of cultural identity
- P2 Increase knowledge of ethnographic writing and the dilemmas associated with writing anthropology
- P3 Ability to understand anthropological text and films in their cultural context
- P4 Be able to apply theory to culture-specific context

Transferable skills

- T1 Be able to communicate their ideas non-ethnocentrically and from a humanistic perspective
- T2 Be able to develop good analytical writing and visual skills
- T3 Improve knowledge and practice of research, sustainable, balanced and ethical research
- T4 Able to apply knowledge and practice in sectors such as: museum, cultural material collections, art, documentary making, research, advocacy

- T5 Able to develop analytic and ethical skills